The Committee on the French tariff have decided to renounce all existing customs treaties on the 1st February.

[The Treaty of Frankfurt, made after the Franco-German war in 1871, expires this year. The decision announced above is probably with a view to amend all existing customs treaties, in order to classify them more conveniently. It is not considered to have been influenced in any way by the McKinley Tariff Bill, the countries affected being Germany, Italy, Spain, Greece, and Austria.]

COMMENTING on the results of "Cricket for the night" the Straits Times says:—"We of the Straits are rejoiced that we have successfully welcomed, played, and entertained the selected cricketers of the two great Crown Colonies which are our nearest English neighbours; and we are perhaps the more rejoiced because, as fortune has chosen, the balance of advantage in the game has been much in our favour. Our visitors from Ceylon and the Straits Settlements have come here, have each scored sufficient success to let it be seen that all the Colonies are fairly well matched in England's national game."

MR. Perrott, the highly-respected P.M. of Wallend and Warrah, (N.S.W.), had a somewhat novel experience the other day. The P.M. owns a cow, which cow strays, and at the instance of the Inspector for the Borough Council the P.M. had to issue a summons against himself as the owner of the animal. The P.M. sat alone on his own case, and faced himself one solitary bob!

THIS Straits Times:—This morning H. E. the Governor received Mr. John Anderson and Mr. W. E. Hooper (the Singapore directors of the Rand Australian Syndicate) and Mr. William Bibby, the mines manager. The object of the interview was to explain to his Excellency various matters touching the working of the mines in Pahang; and on these points H. E. listened to very full explanations.

AT about 1 o'clock on the morning of the 15th instant, a blaze was discovered in the Customs Opium Godown, Sezechen Road, (Shanghai) and on the shutters being opened the premises were found full of smoke, which issued from a pile of salvages and sawdust in the middle of the room. The watchman, however, with the assistance of one or two foreigners, succeeded in putting out the fire before the arrival of the brigade.

FATHER IVAN, of Cronstadt, is supposed to be able to cure the sick by prayer. His deeds have, says a correspondent, been told, by rumour, throughout the empire and exaggerated till they have reached marvellous proportions. He never touches those for whom he prays, and makes not the slightest claim himself to the possession of occult powers. He was born in 1820 in the Government of Archangel in the far north, and was settled in Cronstadt thirty-five years ago. His reputation has therefore been a thing of slow growth, for it is only during the last few years that those outside his own parish have heard of his good deeds, but now everyone in Russia talks of him as much as the world now talks of Dr. Koch.

TELEGRAPHIC news was received at Nagasaki on Monday afternoon, the 12th instant, of the stranding of H.M.S. Pigmy, at Onomichi, in the Northern Passage of the Inland Sea, whilst en route Nagasaki port on her way to Shanghai. Information received on the 13th, also by telegram, stated that she had been got off again, and from what we (Nagasaki Express) can learn she had been ashore on Kosaki-shima, and not at Onomichi, as that place is quite out of the track of ships coming through the Sea. Onomichi is, we believe, the name of the place where the nearest telegraph station is situated, hence the mistake. Whether the Pigmy has sustained any damage, or not, we cannot say, but the probabilities are that she has not. The Pigmy was expected at Nagasaki on the 15th instant.

PROF. Moller, of Carlsruhe, has made some interesting observations on clouds. The highest clouds, dimly seen at sunset, rise on an average to a height of nearly 30,000 feet. The middle clouds keep at from 10,000 to 20,000 feet in height; while the lower clouds reach to between 3000 and 7000 feet. The cumulus clouds float with their lower surface at a height of from 4000 to 5000 feet, while their summits rise to 16,000 feet. The tops of the Alps are often hidden by clouds of the third class, but the bottom of the clouds of the second class, and especially of the thunder clouds, often enfold them. The vertical dimensions of a cloud observed by Professor Moller on the Netelberg were over 1300 feet; he stepped out of it at a height of about 3700 feet, and high above the mountain floated clouds of the middle class, while veils of mist lay in the ravines and dells. The upper clouds were growing thicker, while the lower ones were dissolving, and soon it began to rain and snow.

WE are indebted to the Hon. Secretary (Mr. A. K. Travers) for the following particulars of the Hongkong v. Singapore match, which, owing to the files of papers containing the news having been put on board some slow steamer, we are not yet in receipt of. Hongkong made 179 in first innings, to which Barff contributed 49. Lawson 23, Campbell 24 and Smith 24. Both Barff and Lawson were well caught out by Hornby at long-on. Singapore were 23 behind in first innings, and on going to bat a second time were silenced by Lee deadly bowling of Lawson and Barff for 15 runs! The latter securing 7 wickets for 5 runs. The Batting Averages of the Hongkong Eleven are:—

On the staff of Lord Li, the new Chinese Minister at the Court of the Mikado, there is a foreign adviser of a neutral country (Switzerland), and a native gentleman who has studied law in England, having been called to the Bar of the Inner Temple, London.

LORD GEORGE HAMILTON, in his usual high and mighty style, vaunted the other day over the fact that the Sandfly, a cruiser of the same class as the Serpent, crossed the Bay of Biscay in the very same weather in which the Serpent was wrecked. From this he drew the lesson that the loss of the Serpent was due, not to the defects of the structure of the vessel, but to an accident, against which no human skill could provide. As all of the officers of the Serpent perished, this assertion seemed likely to pass unquestioned. A few days afterwards, however, it came to light that the Sandfly, of whose successful passage the Lord boasted so triumphantly, came very near the same fate as its companion vessel. The Sandfly is now known to have weathered the storm only by throwing overboard all her stores and ammunition, and but for the risk of knocking a hole in the vessel's side, the great gun would also have been lost in the sea. Under Lord George Hamilton's administration disasters in the navy have been very a commonplace. He knows little about naval matters in any practical sense, and the heads of the Department are equally ignorant. When blind men lead the blind, as the old saying goes, a fall into the ditch is inevitable.

SUPREME COURT.

IN CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

(Before Sir James Russell, Chief Justice.)

DEMANDING MONEY WITH MENACES.

Chan Wing was charged with demanding a valuable security with menaces, on the 9th December last. The Attorney-General (Mr. W. M. Goodman) prosecuted and Mr. E. Robinson defended.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty. The following were the jurors:—A. H. Hough, E. J. Obadiah, F. Rutter, J. Brown, A. A. de Jesus, R. Mitchell and E. W. Mallard. The Attorney-General said the prisoner was charged on three counts, first with stealing, secondly with assaulting Lai Ying, and thirdly with being one of a party to enter a room and there demand by menaces and threats a sum of $35 on the 9th December. The facts of the case were that the complainant, who was a seaman, took a girl from a sly brothel on the 5th December last. He lived with her for a few days and then went to his room on the 8th December. He went to his house and found the girl living with a man named Kow Tow. Complainant then went to the station and reported the matter and the girl afterwards rejoined him. On the 9th December, Kow Tow went to him and demanded some money. He first asked $40 and then reduced the amount to $35. The prisoner, who was one of a party of five men, who are said to have been armed, entered the house, No. 3 On Lane, and there with others bullied the complainant into signing a note for $35. The prisoner was the man who actually wrote out the note and under menaces and threats made the complainant sign it.

Lai Ying, the complainant, was called and gave evidence in support of the charge. He was to pay the money by promissory note in a month. The note was to the effect that Lai Ying owes to Li Tak the sum of $35 to be paid in a month. The note was witnessed and dated 9th December. He did not owe any one of those men $35. He did not know if any of the men belonged to a secret society.

Witness was cross-examined at some length, after which the man who witnessed the signing of the note and a woman were also called by the prosecution.

Inspector Perry was called and in cross-examination said the prisoner was arrested after a case had been tried at the Magistracy in which complainant and prisoner were interested.

Mr. Robinson, for the defence, said the charge against the prisoner was for using threats and violence with intent to steal a valuable security. He thought no evidence of such stealing had been given, because there was no promissory note and therefore the prisoner could not be charged with stealing.

He thought his Lordship and the Attorney-General would agree with him in saying that if the prisoner had a claim against the complainant for some furniture that would negative the charge of stealing against him with intent to defraud. Addressing the jury on the facts he said the meeting in the seamen's club was not a hostile but a pacific meeting and was called to settle the question of furniture which was afterwards compromised.

That was the state of affairs and which would exonerate his client. Another point was, who were the parties? The complainant at the Magistracy said the prisoner came to his house with several others. A few days later the same complainant to the other magistrate, said that when the men came to his house the prisoner was brought in with another man. It therefore was seen that in the former case he was described as being one of the gang, whereas in the second case the prisoner is described as being one of the gang who entered at first but was brought in, on conclusion he submitted that there was no hostile meeting but that a meeting had been convened by the complainant to settle a dispute over which they wrangled, and finally settled the matter by signing a promissory note for $35. He therefore asked for a unanimous verdict of acquittal.

The Attorney-General replied, and his Lordship having briefly summed up, the jury retired to consider the verdict. After an absence of ten minutes the jury returned and unanimously found the prisoner not guilty.

The prisoner was discharged.

The Sessions were adjourned till Monday next.

NAVAL AND MILITARY REVIEW.

WE are requested by the Honorary Secretary to the Jubilee Committee (Mr. H. E. Widdowson, C.M.G.) to state that a Review of the Naval and Land Forces will be held on Thursday afternoon in the Wong-chung Valley, at which his Excellency the Governor will be present in state. The Hongkong Volunteers will

Raffles Plain (Applause). I think that our thanks are most cordially due to them for having attended here in response to the invitation extended (Hear, hear) and to those who assisted them in coming. We know from our own experience it is not possible without considerable trouble to get a cricket team able to leave home and travel a long distance to compete in a neighbouring Colony. I feel sure of one thing: whatever our success may be, it is due to the fact that has been played here, that its effect upon the Straits Settlements will be marked, and I hope permanent (Hear, hear). We have had a "fillip" on the cricket ground which was badly needed, because I am one of those who view with a certain amount of dismay the way lawn tennis has encroached upon the domain of cricket (Hear, hear). There cannot be the slightest doubt that there is no finer game in the world—no better game known—than cricket (Loud cheers). It teaches us the best virtues; for it teaches us loyalty, generosity and discipline, and as the Governor of this Colony I have not the slightest hesitation in asserting that a general rule, the best public servants are those who play cricket (applause). We have lately seen most excellent cricket on our ground which was recently opened—I may say inaugurated in such an excellent fashion. I am to be followed this evening by those who can speak much better as to the play we have seen (No, no) but I know this, it would be difficult to meet anywhere, on any ground, so many amateurs who can show such excellent play as has been shown us by our friends from Hongkong and Ceylon. I doubt if many other sportsmen can show a more excellent specimen than our friend on the right (Mr. Vanderper) who has not only shown himself a lover of sport by coming here but has proved himself a good all-round cricketer. I will not go in detail through his team, but will say that we have seen excellent cricket from Marks and that the bowling of Christoffels and Kelaart is as good as any bowling. Then I would refer also to our friend on the left (Lieut. Blair) who has shown excellent leadership in the team he has had charge of. As a good all-round cricketer every one will admit he is hard to beat (Hear, hear) and has been supported by one of his team who has shown us at any rate how to bat on this ground, which has never had a finer batter or better batsman than Capt. Dunn (Hear, hear). I am not going to leave out the bowlers of his team, because I think Barr and Lowson's bowling is thoroughly deserving of the high praise which has been bestowed on it. Gentlemen, the teams we are entertaining have had the advantage of the artistic merit of Bradfield, whom they have met, not upon the cricket ground, but in a way I won't refer to, and he has fixed their name for ever upon the hard-wood of this Colony (Hear, hear, and laughter). We are very much indebted to Bradfield for what he has done on this occasion. Nor must I omit to mention the name of a true sportsman who has taken a great practical interest in the game—a man whom we may very much to night—Sweeneyham (Hear, hear), whose bowling and batting have shown him a thoroughly good cricketer all-round, and who has taken the opportunity of showing his interest in the sport by presenting these cups to be contested for in the matches that have just been played. One of these cups will go to Ceylon, while Hongkong will have to content itself with Sweeneyham's hat (Hear, hear and laughter). We are about to bid farewell to our visitors, we hope they will take back to their respective Colonies a good notion of what they have seen—chiefly as evidence of what there is to be seen further afield in the other settlements and in the Protected Native States. They will be able to pour into the ears of the Ceylon planters the tale that we have heard better than theirs (Hear, hear); that there are means here of more rapidly attaining fortune than in their island (Hear, hear and laughter). I mention this because an occasion like this should not be lost sight of as an opportunity to follow the advice of the poet—I do not know which poet—when he says—

Early to bed and early to rise,
Is a bit of use unless you advise.

The results of the cricket have been an advertisement of the measurable advantages we possess over both our neighbours (Hear, hear and laughter). Gentlemen, I have detained you long enough. I trust that our guests will pardon all sins of omission and commission, and among the latter I am sorry is included shipwreck (Laughter). We wish them a safe return to their own homes and hope they will bear away with them a recollection of what we most sincerely wished to give them, a hearty greeting. We thank them for having come here and give them our good wishes for their future success. We trust they will take away our expression of cordial good-will to our neighbours in Ceylon and Hongkong and that we may consider this the first of a long series of these friendly contests (Hear, hear). Gentlemen, I call on you to drink the health of "Our Visitors."

The toast was drunk with wild enthusiasm, with musical honours and three ringing cheers. Lieut. Blair, R.E., Captain of the Hongkong Team, returned thanks on their behalf. He desired also to propose the health of both of the Straits Teams, coupling with the toast the name of Mr. Birch, their Captain. He had the pleasure, on the occasion of the last match in Hongkong to put Mr. Birch, the best batsman, to the test of one of the best batsmen he had ever met. A jolly good fellow on the cricket field or in the mess room. He showed himself a thorough sportsman and Mr. Birch hoped to have the pleasure of putting him up again in a couple of years, if the match could be got on regularly. Sir Cecil Smith they already knew as a very keen cricketer so that it was not very surprising that such a thoroughly good team had been turned out in the Straits. They (Hongkong) had come down to do their best and that is what they had done, and he was satisfied that the best team had won. He gave them every credit for having beaten them all-round and though, as his friend Lowson said, he did not want to bounce (laughter) if they came down to Hongkong, that team would have another good try (Hear, hear). They had brought with them to Singapore a thing called a Taster, and this particular thing said that he was sure Singapore must have just as good a team as he never had such good liquor before, and he certainly thought Singapore truer a very good example (laughter). He would ask the Ceylon and Hongkong teams to drink the health of the Straits Team and of Birch.

And they did, with commendable enthusiasm and a very creditable amount of noise considering their small numbers.—Free Press.

Memo: There will be a collection after the Tennis Match for Taster to aid him in purchasing a new Hat in place of one accidentally sat upon by P. Blobs yesterday in Church.
Men turned up fairly sharp to-day. Sun very hot again. Blair won toss. Our men bit on hard bumpy wicket; rain came on in middle of Ceylon innings and finally stopped game. Dunn did best to-day—Birch and Lowson doing all bowling. Most of team present at Mess Dinner of 58th—after which the Steelback Niggers performed. The team quiet.

Wicket wretched to-day and got worse and worse as the day went on. In spite of Barrows' violent gesticulations, things went against our men and another bad defeat is put on record. Spirits of our men have to be kept up. Team at Government House Ball. Sir Cecil and Lady Clement Smith very kind—but a lack of "go" noticeable. The energies of Team still dormant. The Tennis match did not come off this afternoon owing to the bad weather.

7th January.

(5)—The President (Mr. Stringer), Mr. Birch, and Mr. Hornby are invited to consider themselves for all time Honorary Members of the Team.
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

Splendid weather. Team had little practice in morning. Straits gave Colombo good thrashing. P. Blobs swears he helped because he was "tuning—greedy Peter." At 5 p.m. P. Blobs (dressed as howling Nigger) handling the ribbons and Taster as a Quaker Parson acting as page drove, on to the ground—E.W. Birch (as female) and Gahagan (as a black gentleman of Singapore) occupying the interior of the coach, which was decorated with two huge posters "Virtue Rewarded" and "Vagabonds Removed." Teas resulted in good, fun—but no one was left at the finish except Blobs, who cleared ground with boxing gloves. Tremendous crowd present. Tingle Tangle once more besieged and yet no arrests.

9th January.
Detachment orders by Captain Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade at 10.45 a.m. to attack Our Hosts (Betting 2 to 1 on Singapore).

(3)—Memo: (a) P. Blobs and Taster are commended for their graceful deportment at Long Tennis.
(4)—Members of the team are earnestly requested not to purloin any public property (this evening—drink and be merry, but carry nothing home in your boots).
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

Match against Singapore commenced at 11 a.m. Our men felled very badly. Campbell, Lowson and Birch made up in batting and left off only nine behind with three wickets to fall. Lowson had biggest hit on ground. Birch hit very hard. Smith ran very fast. Ball at Town Hall a great success—not too much "row" but just "row" enough. A few gentlemen mistook "gharries" for rickshaws.

N.B. Stretchers may be ordered for 5 p.m.—early application is requested as the demand is expected to exceed the supply.
(5)—The C.O. trusts that every man this day will do his duty.
N.B. Lost at the Ball last evening, a Ladies' Brooch representing a horse shoe with two nails in pearls and diamonds.
N.B. Lost at the Ball, the last remaining dollar of Blobs.

This has been a better day for Hongkong. H.K. led by 23 runs on first innings. Barrow addressed Team before second innings and said if we lost this match the Team would be bankrupt. Barrow bowled magnificently well backed up by Lowson; and 17 was all the Singaporeans could get. Barrow's war whoops as each wicket tumbled were a treat to hear. The "At Home" in the evening was a great success and the gallant Steelback entertainer got a great reception; only a few gharris were smashed and one Chinaman hurt. The destruction of property only amounted to two chandeliers and a few dozen of tumblers.

11th January.
Picnic to Johore. Lowson turned up first with an advertisement about his luggage. "The Clear Water Dairy" followed a few minutes later by Barrow up as a Mussulman and brought down the house. All the way the latter kept the audience in a roar—practical demonstrations of capacities. Fairfright, Malay piper good. On way back tried Sister Ann by Court martial for stealing a Barrow. Judge Lowson, prosecuting counsel: Capt. Collinson—Clerk of Court: Counsel for Defence: Herby and Gahagan. Evidence not sufficient to convict owing to the A.B.C. not providing for such a case. Stuck on mudbank for four hours—everybody sang themselves speeches. Got home at 1 a.m.—splendid entertainment on board for the inner man.

12th January.
Detachment Orders by Capt. Blair-Eye.
(1)—The C.O. congratulates the Team on their resuscitation to life—the innings to spare will be sold by auction to-morrow afternoon.
(2)—The Team will be "Wheelbarrowed" out by the "Peshawar" at 4 p.m. to-morrow punctually. The C.O. hopes that on this occasion no stretchers will be required, as last impressions are as difficult to remove as first ones.
(3)—The C.O. has pleasure in announcing that it was the elevation of spirits which alone took the "Mercury" off the sand back yesterday.
(4)—A reward will be offered to any one who gives information as to the whereabouts of Taster and Peter Blobs, who have again mysteriously disappeared.
(5)—The C.O. reminds the Team that they are expected to answer to their names at 4.30 p.m. to-day.
(6)—The C.O. takes this opportunity of thanking the Team for their excellent behaviour at the entertainment so hospitably provided by the Sultan of Johore on behalf of H.H. the Sultan (formerly and ably).

Memo:—The C.O. receives word that the B.A.B. Piper cannot accept Joan's liberal offer of employment in a Highland Regiment further North.
By order,
BOOMERSHINE,
Act. Adj.

Lost:—A nocturnal garment (the property of Taster's Host). Last seen in an Eastern street. Also an iron chest advertisement abstracted by Blobs in broad daylight yesterday.
At early parade most of men absent. Match Straits v. Colombo & Hongkong continued. Dunn did very well—batting with all his old freedom. Dinner at night a great success. Governor made two fine speeches. Blair also very good. Adjourned to smoking concert upstairs. Noise commenced when the Hongkong David & Jonathan came in about eleven o'clock. This pair gave rather an indistinct performance, after which they buried the remains of the H.K. Team in the hall—only breaking a dozen flower pots to procure the earth. The Sultan of Johore having his heard pulled about. After this attention was drawn to the change of hue which the elephant in front of the building had undergone. The painting was sublime and the exact placing of the spots showed considerable knowledge. After this an Eastern Street was invaded and wrecked, so I hear. Altogether this has been an exciting twelve hours. Forgot to mention Lady Clement Smith gave an "at home" in afternoon.

13th January.
Detachment Orders by Capt. Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade at 10 a.m. to wander round the town and sample.
(2)—Embarkation is postponed till to-morrow.
(3)—Captain Blair-Eye promotes himself to the rank of Major for distinguished service in the field.
(4)—Boomerishine is reduced to the rank—having been found guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the Hongkong Team in that he was grossly temperate while under fire.
(5)—Sister Anna is appointed schoolmistress—with effect from 14th January.
(6)—The Team will parade at midnight in Worcester Stockings for a round of visits to their own particular friends. The "Cease-Fire" will be sounded at 6 a.m.; any one found in bed before this hour will be excommunicated. Memo:—Lost Two paint pots with brushes complete, in the neighbourhood of the Town Hall yesterday evening.

By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

Everyone getting ready for leaving. To-night some of our men with a few of the Brave Boys of the Steelbacks went a round and successfully "drew" some of the most sedate men in Singapore. There are also rumours of another exciting exhibition—the victim being a well-known, but objectionable, limb of the law. Very few went to bed but were confronted with.

14th January.
Detachment Orders by Major Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade at 6 a.m. for inspection prior to the match which will take place at 8 a.m. It is strictly forbidden to carry spirits or matches on board. Medical compound will be dispensed in the First Class Smoking Room to our Singapore friends, after which there will be "Bananas in the Air."
(2)—The Team will go to bed at 10 a.m.
(3)—The C.O. has pleasure in announcing that the New Attack Formation proved most successful; 30 of our enemies in seven strong holds being drawn between midnight and 5.30 a.m., and in no single case did the Waits fail to obtain food and drink.
(4)—During the voyage, and until further orders, the team will parade for dinner at 6.30 p.m. in washed faces and black coats.
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

All Singapore down to see us off. In Smoking Room Lowson proposed our entertainers' health to which Mr. Stringer replied, which saying good-bye the banana fight came off—rather in favour of Singapore as we were short of ammunition. Barrow did some effective service, also Dunn, Blair & d. Barrow—most of team asleep all day, weather getting rougher, early turn in.

15th January.
Detachment Orders by Major Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade at 6 a.m. for anti-air on the horizontal bar and otherwise.
(2)—The position of the ship will be fixed at 11.45 a.m. At 4 p.m. the horizon will be taken with Bycullas.
(3)—The following is published for general information—
To P. Blobs the Bellios medal has been awarded by the community of Hongkong for the best scenic effect in oil.
On Taster and Peter Blobs the order of the Spectled Elephant of Blam has been conferred by the Municipality of Singapore.

16th January.
Detachment Orders by Major Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade at 6 a.m. to get the Hose.
(2)—The Team will parade at 4 p.m. to practice "Bar Wigs."
(3)—The following members are admitted to Hospital—Major Blair-Eye—Mal de mare. Transports (Rais)—Irritability of the gastric mucous membrane. Sister Ann—Tubercle (new name) and Puberty.
Boomerishine—Regulation of Bile. N.M. New Growth—Nostalgia.
(4)—As the detachment is authorized (owing to circumstances over which there is no control) the ship's position will be taken from the stars at 8.30 p.m. this evening.
(5)—During the indisposition of Major Blair-Eye, Peter Blobs will command the detachment.
(6)—Any member of the Team found eating the ship's soap when asleep will be heavily fined.
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

Sea still continues rough—necessitating change of command. Too much water coming on board to allow of any fun. A small chorus was got up in the evening, but it was anything but a success. The following appeared shortly after breakfast:—

Hanfaika.

MY BRAVE HAIRDOES—I have now the distinction of looking after my public and private welfare—owing to our C.O. having gone out shooting the Fellow T'ble. During my command—insolubly will be a recommendation for, instead of a bar to promotion. Every member may drink and eat as much as he likes—I especially command sea water to those humanitarians who have not had to starve the fish. It was Temperance that lost us our two first Cricket Matches and henceforward "ape" caemias. The Long 'Un has promised to propose a toast every evening at dinner and it is requested that no one will go under the table till that is done. The restrictions as regards the second class saloon are removed—as they were grossly illegal (See "The Law of Points" of the compass). None of the ship's officers are to be allowed to talk politics and no lights (of the bottom of the glass) are to be taken.
Yours Truly Commander,
PETER BLOBS.

(4)—There will be a choir practice in the Music Hall at 8.30 p.m. Chorus:—
(a)—"See the Conquered Heroes come"
(b)—"The Jonnies come marching home again (loaded with headaches)."
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

The weather has been much rougher to-day and Sister Ann and the New Growth have gone under. The following letter from Mr. Sweeneyham to P. Blobs was published to-day.

Singapore Club,
January 18th, 1891.
My DEAR BLOBS,—I have just heard that a subscription list is being circulated in Hongkong inviting funds for the erection in the Happy Valley of a substantial Monument to the memory of Hongkong Cricket. Died in Singapore on or about New Year 1891. Some of your men might like to subscribe, and while you furnish the design—Skull and Crossbones not suitable—Taster could write a suitable epitaph. I think if you turn in future as Christy Masters will have a great success. I understand the Hongkong cricket ground is to be devoted to a home for lost dogs.
Yours Sincerely,
F. A. SWEENEYHAM.

P.S.—If you would like to see me I am sorry I shall be able to oblige you as I am leaving Singapore in five minutes, but Mr. H. L. Talbot, who owes you something for a crushed hat, has undertaken to oblige you in any legitimate way.

January 16th.
Detachment Orders by Major Blair-Eye.
(1)—The Team will parade for "High Jinks" at 6 a.m.
(2)—The Team will parade at 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. to correct the compass.
(3)—The C.O. appoints Taster and Peter Blobs instructors in Gin-nastics.
(4)—In return for his valuable services during the last fortnight, The Long 'Un is appointed attendant in the Delirium Ward.
(5) A Medical Board will assemble at 11 a.m. to report on the state of health of Sister Ann and the N.M. New Growth.
(6) The members of the Team are reminded that the second class saloon is for the accommodation of second class passengers only and that it and its contents are under the sole charge of a talented officer. They will therefore not intrude in future.
By order,
TASTER,
Adj.

Several men got up to-day only to go to bed again. The sea has been very rough all day and the attendance at dinner this evening was very small. There is no excitement on board owing to the weather and scarcity of passengers. A second letter from Sweeneyham to Blobs was published to-day as follows:—
British Residency,
Perak.

January 18th, 1891.
MY DEAR BLOBS,—I have received your application and should be glad if I could do anything for you. I can realize the mortification with which you contemplate your return to Hongkong and would willingly save you from possible ill-treatment at the hands of the savagelike inhabitants of the island. You have a nice clear complexion, a winning smile and a pleasing way of expressing yourself, and I daresay your constitution will stand the climate if you continue to be abstemious. I might offer you the post of assistant teacher in the Vernacular School (where cricket is not one of the subjects) and I think you would do well; but before saying anything definite you must get a certificate of good moral character from some one in Holy Orders (the Taster's testimony will I regret to say, not suffice). You must not expect a high salary at first, but when you have by diligence and practice wiped out the disgrace of these last ten days you may hope that your position will be improved—when you can make 25 runs against underhand bowling without giving more than two chances I shall consider you are on the way to improvement. You are young and there is no reason why you should not do better if you give your whole mind to it. I take an interest in you because you have energy—you jumped upon the Hongkong flag with praiseworthy zeal—and you are strictly sober—qualities which some of your friends may regard with envy. They are different, and I cannot do for them what I may yet do for you, but they might sell their return tickets to Hongkong and if application is made to the proper authorities, the Straits might send them to England as distressed British subjects. I shall always be glad to hear from you.
Yours Sincerely,
F. W. SWEENEYHAM.

P.S.—I did not think Sir Rowland Hill was looking very well when I saw him last; if he is keeping too late hours use your influence with him.

17th January.

NOW READY.

THE BRITISH "NEW NAVIGATION," and the FRENCH "NEW NAVIGATION" simplified by JOHN AMBROSE CLARKE, teacher of Officers and Engineers, Hongkong. Also correspondence to the local papers on physical geography by the author of this work.

In addition to the superbly illustrated Methods are given for deducing Heights and Distances of Mountains, with Tables to solve the questions. Also a most interesting problem, relative to the Shadow going back upon the Dial of Ahas.

Published A.D. 1891, being the year of the Author's Jubilee, and likewise that of Hongkong's Del. Gratia.

Not.—The author's numerous successful pupils on the Coast of China will doubtless be anxious to possess a Copy of the Marvellous Work, and (if so, kindly send me an order quickly, for there only one hundred copies.

PRICE 6s.

No. 75, WYNDHAM STREET, SPECIAL NOTICE.

By this method of solution, we have only half the work used in Sumner's, and moreover, it is more accurate; and therefore it only requires to be known to be appreciated, and then, the hitherto famous American problem will become obsolete.

The old Navigation will soon be swept away, and the chronometer be rated at nearly means of the "New Navigation," which is truly marvellous.

J. A. CLARKE.
